MERRIMACK COLLEGE
1979

To The Merrimackan Community,

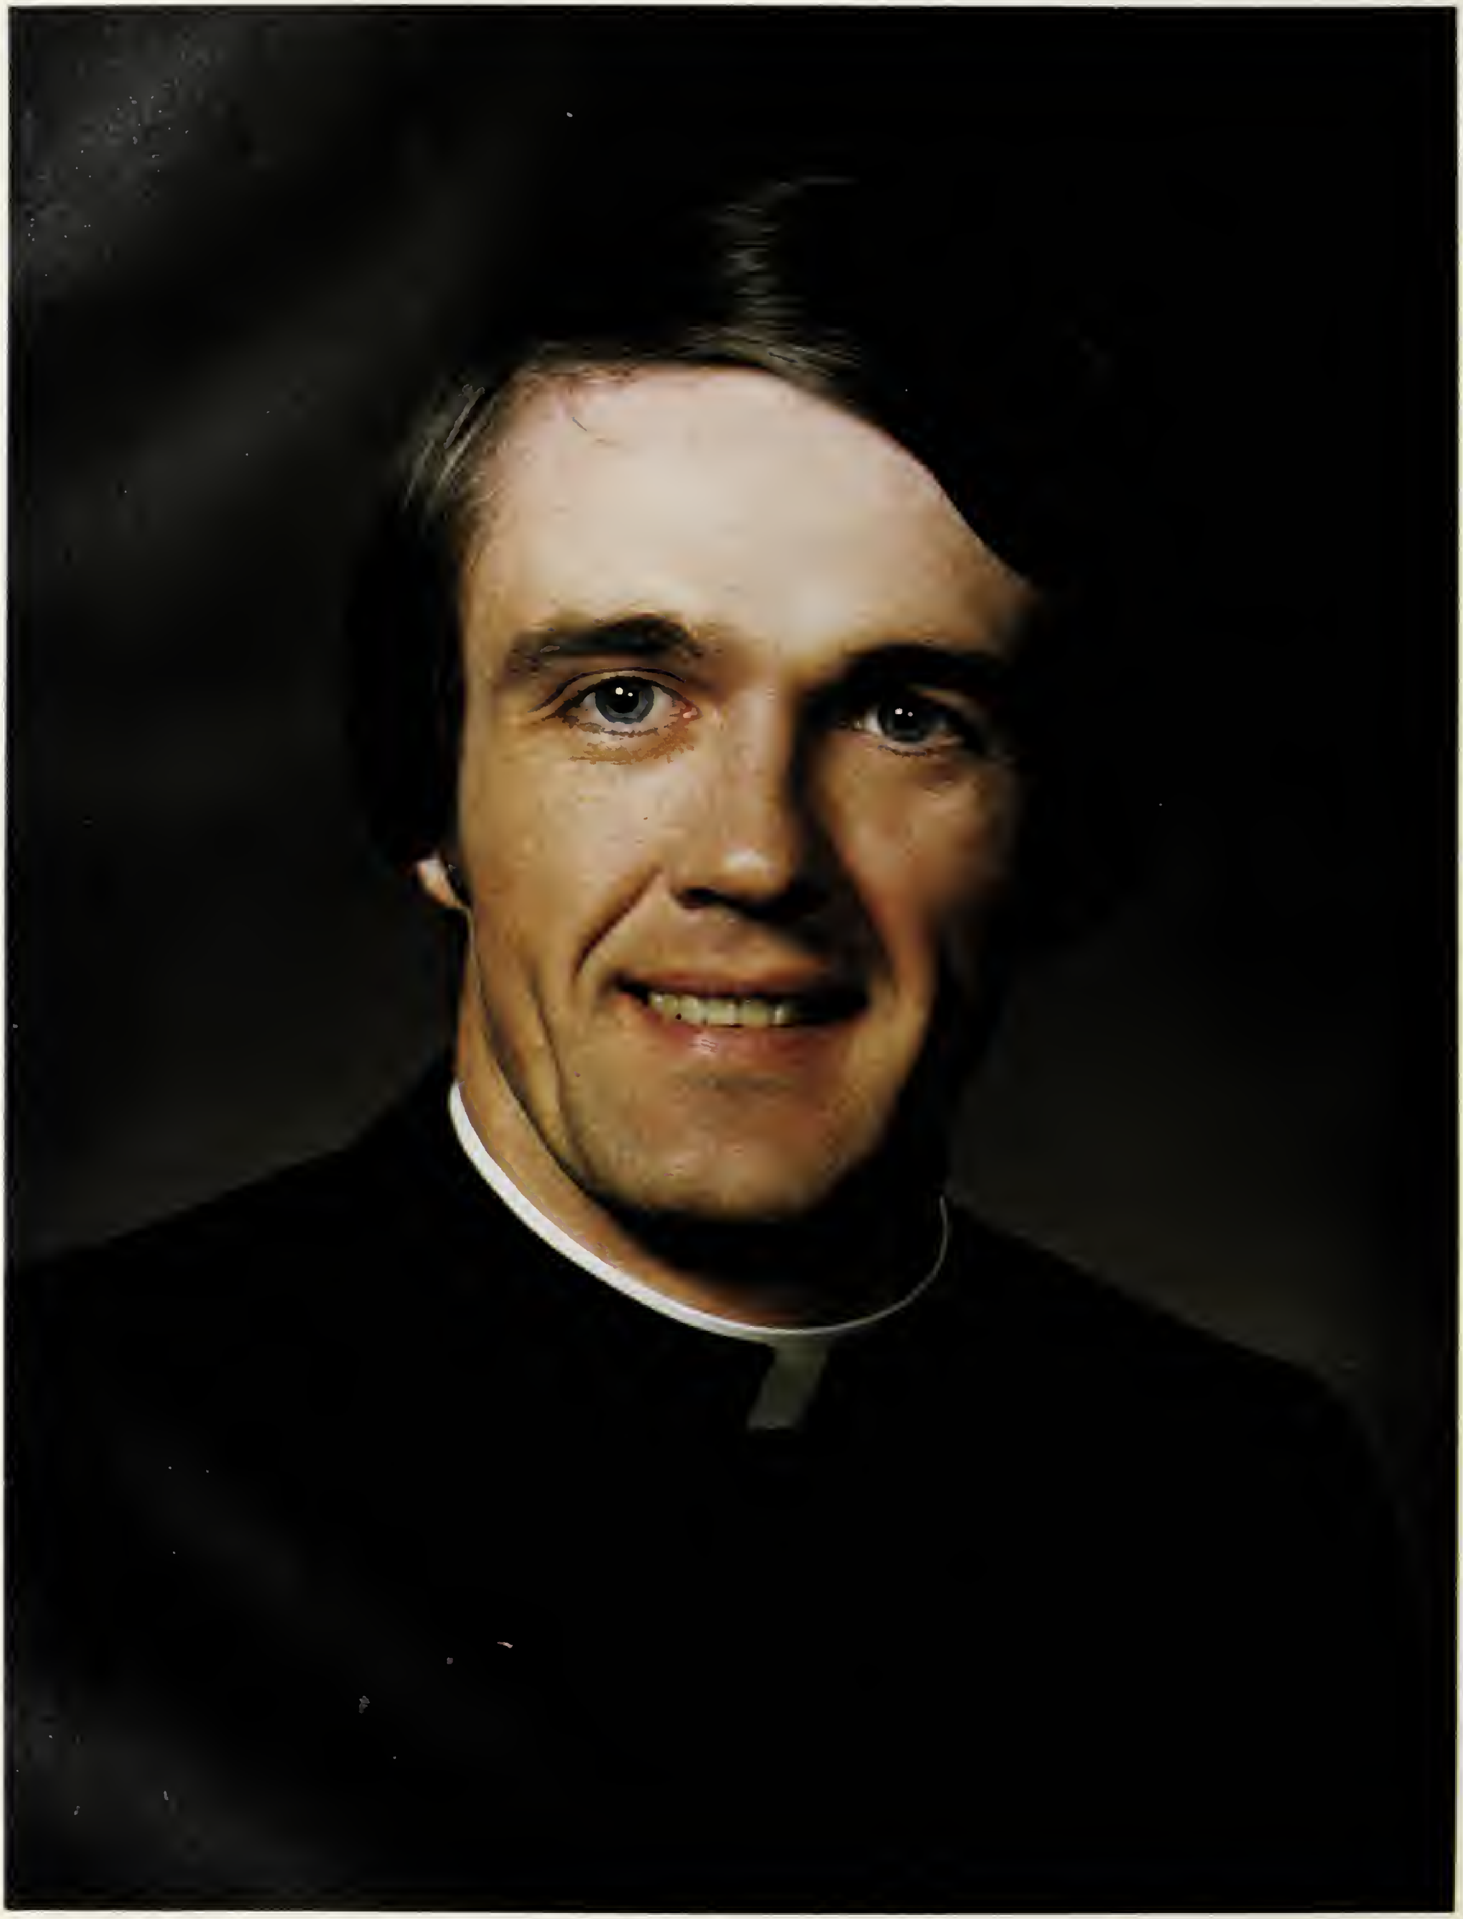
The Merimackan Staff has put together the 1979 yearbook for the Merrimack Community. We hope you enjoy this book as much as we did putting it together. The staff came together under a very unskilled leader, but together we have learned about layouts, deadlines, late nights, and the realization that it all done. The yearbook has filled a space in this community. I hope everyone enjoys this book to the upmost.

I would like to make a special thanks to those who have helped us, Mrs. LLee, our moderator, Fr. Marty Smith, Marie Doyle, and Guy Caron. Also, I would like to thank the staff: Bob Shea, Karen King, Colleen McSheehy, Mark Lebreque, and the rest of the staff.

Thank you,
Mary Pat McDonald
Editor

The Merimackan staff wishes to didicate this book to Father William Wallace, O.S.A. We feel that Fr. Wallace has filled the spaces as teacher, religious leader, and friend. He has taught us to understand religion with the famous Equis T-shirt. He has helped as a friend by caring for the students of Merrimack. We want to express our thanks to him for filling a space in our community.

The Merrimackan Staff



LOOKING FOR SPACE

On the road of experience
I'm trying to find my own way
Sometimes I wish that I could fly away
When I think that I'm moving Suddenly things stand still I'm afraid 'cause I think they always will
And I'm looking for space
And to find out who I am
And I'm looking to know and understand
It's a sweet sweet dream
Sometimes I'm almost there Sometimes I fly like an eagle and Sometimes I'm deep in despair
All alone in the universe Sometimes that how it seems
I get lost in the sadness and the screams
Then I look in the center Suddenly everything's clear
I find myself in the sunshine and my dreams
And I'm looking for space
And to find out who I am
And I'm looking to know and understand
It's a sweet sweet dream
Sometimes I'm almost there
Sometimes I fly like an eagle
Sometimes I'm deep in despair
On the road of experience
Join in the living day
If there's an answer
It's just that it's that way
When you're looking for space
And to find out who you are
When you're looking to try and reach the stars
It's a sweet sweet dream
Sometimes I'm almost there Sometimes I fly like an eagle an
Sometimes I'm deep in despair

When each of us entered Merrimack it was merely a space. Through the times spent here we have grown along with it, and Merrimack has become a special space. We have found space to test ourselves; intellectually, socially and emotionally. There are spaces we will always remeber; those filled with friends, parties and challenges. In the 1979 Merrimackan you are invited to share the memories of the spaces we have all come to know.

a space for solitude . . .

a space for studying . . .

a space for relaxing . . .

a space for partying and laughter . . .

It pleases me to have you here for just a little while,
While we open up some spaces.
John Denver

Reach high,
for stars lie hidden in your soul.
Dream deep,
for every dream precedes the goal!
Pamela Vaull Starr

Riding on the tapestry of all there is to see
So many ways and so many things.
Rejoicing in the differences, there's no one just like me Yet as different as we are we're still the same.

John Denver

The Merrimackian would like to dedicate the sports section to Mr. Tom Lawler. Mr. Lawler was the hockey coach who led his team to ECAC and NCAA championships. Mr. Lawler also tried to get the other students involved by getting them over to the sports complex with intramurels. The Merrimack Community lost a good coach and a person.

Fantasy

Everyman has a place, in his heart there's a space, and the world can't erase his fantasies — Take a ride in the sky, on our ship fantasii — all your dreams will come true, right away And we will live together, until the twelfth of never our voices will ring forever, as one —

Come to see, victory, in the land called fantasy loving life, a new decree, bring your mind to everlasting liberty —

Our minds will explore together, old worlds, we conquer, forever we then, will expand love together, as one —

Come to see, victory in a land called fantasy, loving life, for you and me, to behold. to your soul is ecstasy
You will find, other kind, that has been in search of you, many lives has brought you to, recognize it's your life, now in review —

And as you stay for the play, fantasy, has in store for you, a glowing light will see you through —

It's your day, shining day — all your dreams come true
As you glide, in your stride, with the wind, as you fly away give a smile, from your lips, and say — I am free, yes I'm free, now I'm on my way

A Moment
By William Connell

Back at the house where my childhood began, trying to recapture what's lost in a man; Picking up mirrors that lie in the grass, and wondering if that's really me in the glass. Yes, I am a painter who paints with his eyes, painting the things that had long ago died;

Trying so hard to hold on to the past, but try as I may it still slips from my grasp. Aging so rapidly is hard for a person to accept, and living life over in thought causes regrets;

Kindered Spirits
by William Connell
Please don't speak to me of the past or how it was spents, Just pass me a bottle of tequilla
and spare me the sentiment.
Don't bother me with resuscitated memories of esoteric parties or maybe a token gala, I'm not interested in anything that panders to excessive nostalgia.
Please don't misunderstand me for for I admit that I reminice many a time, But I never believed in escaping into the glorious past whenever the darker aspects of the present shrouded my mind.
I know your've a habit of looking at old photos that hark you back to a seemingly simpler time and place, But in the end you realize that your mind has been beguiled and all you have left is a bittersweet meloncholy on your face.
So let's lie back and enjoy the ephemeral here and now instead of constantly wondering where it went, Hand me you warm January pipe of gold and spare me the sentiment.
